Coordinator Spotlight

My name is Jan and I am the PFE coordinator for the North Aurora SDA School. There is nothing better than helping children and being a PFE coordinator is one of the best ways I know to help children. The benefit is twofold: tuition assistance and making friends with a mentor. I have been a coordinator for two years and a mentor for one year. I served on the school board for many years. Our former chairman heard about PFE and asked me to check into starting the program at the North Aurora Seventh Day Adventist School. It was a no-brainer because I love children and care about Christian education. As a coordinator, I work with the mentors to identify activities to do with the children. Covid interrupted some of our plan but innovative kids and mentors had breakfast together over zoom and played games. Some pairs work on developing relationships with animals. Some pairs work on gardening and memorizing Bible verses. Others read to their mentors, do homework with their mentors, learn to sew, garden, and make greeting cards. The program is a win-win for mentors, coordinators and most of all, the children.

Newspaper Publication

Do you have a PFE story that you would like to share with your community? Submit your story to the local newspaper and if it is published, you will receive a gift card from us!

8 Tips for Submitting an Article to the Local Newspaper

1. Submit the article to the proper person
2. Respect deadlines
3. Include your contact information
4. Keep things short, simple, and to the point
5. Avoid using jargon, slang, or insider words
6. Explain acronyms (Example: write 'Partnering for Eternity' first and then you can use 'PFE' in the rest of your article)
7. Double-check spelling and grammar
8. Thank the newspaper for their consideration

How to Submit the Article

Find a local newspaper (online or physical) that you like and look for sections where your PFE story would fit well. Recommended sections to look for are local news, neighborhood news, community, etc. The newspaper will include a note on how to submit your article. You may need to email it or drop it off in-person.
